“As a smart security solutions provider, we are closely monitoring the impact of the COVID-19 health emergency for schools and public communities in China,” said Ms. Zhixin Liu, Chairman and CEO of Datasea. “At the 2020 LD Micro Virtual conference, we will be addressing our core capabilities, as well as our business development plans and growth strategies. As previously disclosed, one of the highlights is our newly developed system which aims to detect and control the coronavirus outbreak at schools and in communities in China. We believe our technology can address risk detection, early warning, and risk management in health emergencies and that our expertise in these fields have the potential to benefit our customers in China as we seek to bring value to our shareholders.”

“We are delighted to be hosting our third virtual event in order to showcase some of the truly unique names in micro-cap” stated Chris Lahiji, President of LD Micro. “There are a many people and companies who are unable to attend our live events, due to any number of reasons, so we are happy to offer an additional way for companies to present to investors without taking a lot of time out of their day-to-day operations. While virtual events will never replace the experience of sitting in the same room as other humans, it is a great format for updating the investor community and getting increased exposure.”

The conference will be held via webcast and will feature over 40 companies in the small / micro-cap space.
